

Know Your Therapist Role

Physiotherapist:

- Physiotherapist works with patients to develop customized programs designed to restore as much as possible their functional ability and movement. They are trained to help patients at all stages of life – from infant to old age – whose function and movement are impacted.
- They help you with transferring to wheelchair, Car and bathtub.
- They help you with walking and improving your gait pattern
- They help long term patient to be safely transferred to wheelchair and prevent any complications related to bedridden.

Occupational therapist:

- OTs help patients find ways to do daily activities that they need or want to do.
- They can help with daily activities (ADLs) such as dressing, eating,etc
- They can help with using wheelchair and recommend the proper wheelchair for you.
- They help with home modification to be convenient for the patient's needs.

Speech language pathology (SLP):

- SLPs treat many types of communication and swallowing problems.
- They assess the cognitive skills to provide most appropriate method for communication.